

The Devonshire Association

Registered Charity 252468

HISTORY OF ART LECTURES

Exemplary Women and Dangerous Females (5 weeks)

Baroque and Modern Art (5 weeks)

Presented by Dr Anthony Kelly who has degrees in The History of Art and has worked as university lecturer in French, and for the Ministry of Defence. He specialises in Spanish and Dutch Golden Age painting.

A TEN WEEK course on MONDAYS from 11.00am to 1.00pm
Starting 11th January 2010

at

Music Room Central Library Exeter

Close to the bus station : wheelchair access.

The first five weeks of the course will study females in classical and baroque art. This will include images of famous women who use violence against men as well as seduction, the classical emblem tradition of allegorical figures and religious images of Madonna, saints and virgin martyrs. The second five weeks will cover other baroque and some modern art - including Caravaggio's Dutch and French disciples, the art of the war time poster, and landscape and marine painting.

Fee: £90 per person (pensioners & DA members £80)

History of Art Lectures:

I/We would like to book ticket(s) at each

Please make cheque payable to The Devonshire Association and together with a s.a.e. send to The Registrar, The Devonshire Association, The West Wing, Bishop's Palace, Palace Gate, Exeter EX1 1HX

Name/s: _____

Address: _____

Telephone No: _____ email: _____